Customer Reviews

I have used this planner for at least 10 years, and I have so loved everything about it. Please be advised that this is now being offered by a different publisher, and the format is very different. Instead of each month on two pages, each month is just on one side, so only half the space. Several other features are different, also. Finally, the weekly pages and art work pages are alternating differently, so the art work can't be saved because there are all the calendar notations showing through. I think it is a different quality of paper, also. I am so disappointed! It is no longer a Lang Product

A beautiful planner book with nature art like flowers, birds, plants, animals, etc. done in watercolors. Spiral bound book opens and closes easily, has a pocket inside the front cover, has elastic to keep it close or open to a certain page. It was worth waiting for the 2017 edition!

I have purchased this particular planner for several years and was surprised that for 2017 the monthly format has been altered from each month having a two page spread to only one page.

Needless to say, the boxes for writing in appointments are much smaller than before. The rest of the planner has a few other changes and the paper doesn't have the same linen feel to it that it had in the past. But I do love all the beautiful artwork by Marjolein Bastin.

Beautiful inside pages. I enjoy these lovely watercolors. Enough room to record 3 or 4 activities per day.

Lovely pictures; Marjolein Bastin makes things so special.
