Customer Reviews

Great package. I was disappointed with the choice of prints as none of the 5 show Blue Dog in her entirety. Only on the cover of the box do you see all her legs. I heard that the 2001 calendar has been cancelled because of Rodrigue's disgust with the reselling of his stuff on online auctions. These note cards are selling on ebay for over $50 to people that don't know to check .com first. Posters that are still readily available online (Friendship) are selling on ebay for 5 times what they retail for. Always check .com first!

I really like these notecards - weird thing is - i didn't buy them to use them as notecards, but to frame them as a small little series. They look great - the colors are extremely vivid and the pictures placed as a series will brighten up any room. The box that the cards come in is also useful - it's a sturdy little box that i throw all my change in

Well, I am glad that I can finally afford to have Blue Dog in my home! I am a big Blue Dog fan, but can't afford gallery prices of Rodrigue's silkscreens. So these cute little cards will soon be framed and on my walls. Like the other reviewer, I just can't part with them to use them as notecards. I love the sturdy little box they come in as well. And many thanks to reviewer Rob, who lets us know that the Friendship poster can be found for online ordering! Ordered mine this morning!

If you love Blue Dog, as I do, and you order one of these every year, as I do, you are bound to be satisfied and pleased. This year I've just rehomed a dog in need who looks very like Blue Dog. Her name is True; her nickname is TBD. True Blue Dog.

If you like Blue Dog (and I do!), you will love these cards. It's not clear in the description, but this set comes with 15 total cards - 3 each of 5 designs. The box is a real collectable, too. I'll buy more - to send and to frame!

15 cards of good 4.5x6" card stock, 3 of each of five Blue Dog designs, hearty envelope paper. Count the recipients lucky dogs! All in a really nice reusable heavy-duty keepsake box with a magnetized lid, surrounded by cute Blue Dogs staring at you from all sides.

We recently visited New Orleans and loved the Blue Dog art everywhere. The artist, George Rodrigue, recently passed away and of course his art has skyrocketed. I wanted to have a little Blue Dog art in my home and these cards are high quality and very nice. I can't bring myself to send them and I love the variety included in the box.

Over two decades ago, my then two young daughters and I made the first of many trips to New Orleans when we lived in Pensacola. As we strolled along, we passed a small, unassuming gallery and I immediately stopped. There, propped up in the window, was a painting of a dog - a blue dog. I loved him immediately and have ever since. So it follows that I love the cards - and have for years. A recent review stated in part that no one in New Orleans liked this icon and the paintings are only fodder for tourists. Now, there is a generalization if there ever was one and thus, like all generalizations (including this one?) not worth considering. The Blue Dog is here to tease out a smile from those of us who stop and look and that's enough.
