Customer Reviews

Great book, however I am very disappointed that this book is not written in B flat. It is instead written for C instruments. This book is the exact same thing as my cello book, with the exception of the clef you are playing in. I was hoping to be able to play duets with my wife, but we cannot do that now, unless we transpose the music.

We got this for our 12 year old clarinet player and he is really enjoying it. He is familiar with the actual songs so he has familiarity and has made good progress. It is also music he wants to play, instead of music he has to play. I think that makes a big difference.

My daughter is in her second year of clarinet playing. A student at Mizzou Band Camp had this book during the summer and I wanted to get it for my daughter. Great addition to music being played in our home - I can actually recognize the tunes being played!

Great, thorough book of all the fun Disney standards I know from childhood. NOTE: This is not the right purchase for someone seeking challenging, technical music. It is all very easy rhythm and key-wise for anyone who's been playing for a bit, so it's best use is fun leisurely playing! Thanks!

I'm a private clarinet instructor with a large studio of students. This book is so popular with my clarinetists that I use it weekly. It has a good range of difficulty and is great for teaching rhythm because students recognize the songs and are inspired to play the music correctly. It's good for students who have played between 6 months to about three years, or adult clarinetists just wanting to have fun. Highly recommend.

Medium hard songs perfect for a beginner/medium level clarinetist. Good because the songs are easy to hear in your head. Bought this for a 12 year old who is in her 3rd year, but first real year of band. Don't hesitate to buy. Lots of music Degree of difficulty ranges from beginners to intermediate. Please note, I consider myself a beginner and am commenting from that perspective. I bought the song book primarily to improve my skill level. The song book meets my expectations. I also enjoy playing the songs.

This book has most of the popular Disney songs and is written for a beginner, the songs themselves sound good and true to the originals from the movies
