Customer Reviews

This is a wonderful coloring book for both adults and children; it is filled with 16 imaginative, artistically rendered native American dream catchers in traditional form, including the hoop that symbolizes strength and unity, the web that entangles all bad dreams until they perish with the first dawns light, plus the outer holes and feathers that allow the good dreams to pass through the web and gently slide down the feathers to the sleeper. Added to each dream catcher are more traditional ornaments including Beads, Fish, a Turtle, Butterflies, Bears, a Wolf, Horses, and even more to create unique dream catchers that will inspire you and spark the imaginations of children as you teach them about the history and legend of the dream catcher. This is the first in the Creative Haven stained glass series coloring books that I have purchased and I was surprised at the quality and texture of this paper. I am always looking for items that will keep my grandchildren interested in coloring and inspire them. This unique series is does just that and I plan on buying a few more in the near future. 1. 16 Illustrations printed one per page (The back of each page is blank) 2. Printed on transparent, thin but very good quality paper, it feels almost like a cross between thin flexible plastic or wax paper, it will tear but not in normal coloring and it has a glow embedded in the paper that sparkles when a direct light hits the paper that makes it shimmer a little. It is much heavier than tracing paper. 3. This paper has a bit of texture and it is easy to color on it with all Markers, Crayons and Colored pencils. 4. All Markers that I tested work well on this paper and none bleed through.
