Customer Reviews

I purchased a copy of the praeludium and allegro by Fritz Kreisler in the style of Gaetano Pugnani and appreciate the quality of the music binding. The thickness of the cover protects the pages within from heavy use. The cover page is written in German. The violin part as well as the piano accompaniment is well spaced in terms of measures. The notes are legible. There are no fingerings written for the piano part leaving it to the performer to decide. There are only a few fingerings in the violin part and then only in the Allegro. I have found these fingerings (once I was used to them) very helpful and the LH motion looks uniform as it moves up the fingerboard in this one particular spot. There are no measure numbers written in which would be helpful if they were. All in all, I am very happy with my copy.

Great! It came on time and excellent quality.

Highly recommend. It has a quality cover which protects music inside. Daughters violin teacher recommended this to me. Shipped quickly on Prime as we needed it rushed for a competition.
